SEPTEMBER

ANNUAL VISITS (TBC)

This is momentous year for Jesus Hospital Charity, work has begun at Potters Lane, to build seven new almshouses. This will take the total number of our almshouses to 63.

The reason the Charity have embarked on this huge project is in response to the need for more affordable housing in Barnet, as our Borough has the fastest growing population of any of the 32 Boroughs in London!

The Visitors are appreciative of the patience and understanding shown by all residents at Potters during works, and JHC are determined that when the project is completed, that the whole site will look attractive and that the new units will blend in with the rest of the cottages.

We would like to think that James & Mary Ravenscroft would be delighted that more than 330 years after their original legacy of 6 almshouses in Wood Street, they have gone on to help hundreds of other ladies in housing need.

We would like to invite you to...

THE BATTLE OF BARNET 1471

THE MEDIEVAL FAIR 9&10 JUNE

Such was the enthusiastic response to a real-life re-enactment of the Battle of Barnet that military re-enactors, organisers and visitors were unanimous in their hope that the first-ever Barnet Medieval Festival can become an annual event.

Almost 6,000 people attended the two-day festival which filled the Byng Road playing fields (June 9-10) with medieval tents and banners, displays of archery and cannon firing, and the recreation of scenes from both the Battle of St Albans (1461) and Battle of Barnet (1471).

Over 150 re-enactors, many in full armour, kept a ten-deep crowd of visitors enthralled as the Lancastrians and Yorkists fought for supremacy – a battle that ended with the death at Barnet of the powerful Earl of Warwick, the Kingmaker.

The festival, supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund, was organised by the Battle of Barnet Project, which is sponsoring an archaeological dig on the battlefield site – thought to have been in fields around Kitts End Lane – and is hoping to gain wider recognition for Barnet's historic role in the Wars of the Roses.

Well over 2,000 attended Saturday's re-enactments, and with a second day of fine weather, attendance on Sunday was well in excess of 3,000.

Members of the Medieval Siege Society and the Wars of Roses Federation were so pleased with the support that they pledged to return to Barnet next year if another festival is organised.

This was the first re-enactment of the Battle of Barnet since 1998 and the project – established by Barnet Museum, Battlefields Trust and Barnet Society – is hoping to create an annual event like the Tewkesbury Festival, now its 23rd year of celebrating the Battle of Tewkesbury, which was held on 4 May 1471, less than a month after Barnet (14 April 1471).

FOUNDERS DAY LUNCH 2018

On Thursday 26 April we remembered our Founders, James and Mary Ravenscroft at Old Fold Manor Golf Club

Founders Day once again proved very popular with another beautiful day and delicious food.

This year the entertainment was provided by Leigh Edgecombe from the Edge of Magic.

The table top magician proved a great success. Leigh was discreet and polite at all times. "How did he do that" was heard on more than one occasion!!

TEN QUESTIONS ESTHER EDMONDS

Esther has lived at Grasvenor Avenue for nearly 2 year she has settled in well and is very happy there.

1. What is your best childhood memory?

"This would be sleeping at my grandmother's house, in her big comfy bed and having her kind hands hold me tight."

2. What is the best thing about living in Barnet?

"All the little shops, the staff are so friendly and I am a big fan of Waitrose in The Spires."

3. Over the years, what has been you're your favourite venue?

"The Old Red Lion which has sadly now been demolished. It was so warm, friendly and welcoming. It was a proper pub."

4. Favourite film of all time?

"Casablanca. What a great film. But very sad, my favourite actress, Ingrid Bergman had to choose between the 2 men she loved, Humphrey Bogart and her own husband."

5. What has been the biggest change you have seen in Barnet?

"The decline of all the little shops in the High Street, now being replaced by charity shops. It's such a shame but I guess it's the same everywhere."

6. Favourite food?

"My favourite food is quite an unusual combination, salmon with noodles. I just love it! I also enjoy a nice spaghetti bolognese and salt beef."

7. Favourite TV programme?

"It's a series you may not have heard of called Fringe. It ran for 6 series and only finished a year ago. It's about people going back in time, but living 2 parallel universes."

8. What are your interests and do you belong to any clubs?

"I help out at a care home in Golders Green, serving tea and coffee, sitting with the residents etc. My big passion is tennis. I love the sport, especially the men's game, which is so great to watch."

9. Best place you have visited abroad?

"I love Paris. The culture, the food and the architecture, so many beautiful little churches, but I have to say the younger Parisians are a lot friendlier than the older ones!"

10. Finally, what do you like most about being a resident of JHC?

"I really like my neighbours and the lovely area we live in. best of all, I feel safe and secure. We're so lucky, everything gets sorted for us, from jobs to wonderful outings."
